Welcome to Seaview! We are so glad you've come to worship with us today. My prayer is that you would experience the love of Jesus Christ as we celebrate Him through prayer, song, and studying God's Word. I hope this morning's message will challenge you and help you to get to know God in a real and practical way.

Today, you're sitting among a wonderful community of people who are committed to serving together, growing together, and doing life together. We'd love to get to know you better, so please take a moment to fill out a guest card and drop it in the offering plate when it is passed.

THE WOUNDED WARRIOR

“Every boy, in his journey to become a man, takes an arrow in the center of his heart, in the place of his strength. Because the wound is rarely discussed and even more rarely healed, every man carries a wound. And the wound is nearly always given by his father.”

—John Eldredge, Wild at Heart

... “Absalom may go to his own house, but he must never come into my presence.” So Absalom did not see the king.
2 Samuel 14:24 NLT

The king was overcome with emotion. He went up to the room over the gateway and burst into tears. And as he went, he cried, “O my son Absalom! My son, my son Absalom! If only I had died instead of you! O Absalom, my son, my son.” 2 Samuel 18:33 NLT

As soon as Jesus was baptized, he went up out of the water. At that moment heaven was opened, and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and alighting on him. ¹⁷And a voice from heaven said, “This is my Son, whom I love; with him I am well pleased.” Matthew 3:16-17 NIV
